Lessons Learned in the Response

- Not a time to yell, but a time to love

Lessons Learned in the Response

- Not a time to yell, but a time to love
- Trust that discipline is good for our children

Hebrews 12:5–11

And have you forgotten the exhortation that addresses you as sons? “My son, do not regard lightly the discipline of the Lord, nor be weary when reproved by him. 6 For the Lord disciplines the one he loves, and chastises every son whom he receives.” 7 It is for discipline that you have to endure. God is treating you as sons. For what son is there whom his father does not discipline? 8 If you are left without discipline, in which all have participated, then you are illegitimate children and not sons.

Hebrews 12:5–11

9 Besides this, we have had earthly fathers who disciplined us and we respected them. Shall we not much more be subject to the Father of spirits and live? 10 For they disciplined us for a short time as it seemed best to them, but he disciplines us for our good, that we may share his holiness. 11 For the moment all discipline seems painful rather than pleasant, but later it yields the peaceful fruit of righteousness to those who have been trained by it.

WATERMARK
COMMUNITY CHURCH

Easton,

This is day 12 of your journey to walk in true freedom.

"In the same way we also,
who we were children, were enslaved to the elementary principles of this world, but when the fullness of time had come, God sent forth his son, born of a woman, born under the law to redeem those who were under the law, so that we might receive adoptions as sons.

Galatians 4:3-5

Easton, you are a son of the Lord despite what you or me to be enslaved to anything. Walk in the
