THAT YOU MAY HAVE LIFE

John 20-21

- Callie Nixon -

EVERYTHING CHANGES WHEN JESUS CALLS YOUR NAME.

THAT YOU MAY HAVE LIFE

- John 21:9-14

- 9 When they got out on land, they saw a charcoal fire in place, with fish laid out on it, and bread. 10 Jesus said to them, “Bring some of the fish that you have just caught.” 11 So Simon Peter went aboard and hauled the net ashore, full of large fish, 153 of them. And although there were so many, the net was not torn. 12 Jesus said to them, “Come and have breakfast.” Now none of the disciples dared ask him, “Who are you?” They knew it was the Lord. 13 Jesus came and took the bread and gave it to them, and so with the fish.

The background of the entire image is a close-up, high-resolution photograph of tea leaves. The leaves are a deep, vibrant green, with some showing lighter green veins. They are densely packed and have a slightly glossy texture. The lighting is soft, creating subtle highlights and shadows across the foliage.

(Hebrews 12:1) let us also lay aside every weight, and sin which clings so closely, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us...

V 25 – ‘Now, there are also many other things Jesus did. Were every one of them to be written, I supposed that the world itself could not contain the books that would be written.’

Sit with Him.

Serve his people.
Stay in Your lane.
