

GET YOUR HOUSE IN ORDER

I. Get your _____ in order!

A. Remember God's purpose and your privilege to serve in this platform!

B. Re-order your priorities as you trust His provision! So what matters Most?

- Your _____ matters!
- Your _____ matters!
- Your _____ matters!

Many job opportunities will come and go, but the God-ordained role of parenting your child at this one time in life comes and has come and will never come again!

II. Get your _____ in order!

A. Overflow: Life on life _____

- In a world that is constantly feeding lies to our children, your home must be a sanctuary of overflowing truth. You are the primary discipler of your child!
- "His word is in my heart like a fire, a fire shut up in my bones. I cannot hold it in!" –Jeremiah 20:9
- "She opens her mouth with wisdom and the teaching of kindness is on her tongue." –Proverbs 31:25
- "A wise woman builds her house, but with her hands, the foolish one tears hers down" –Proverbs 14:1

B. _____: Training in righteousness

- Teach _____
- Establish _____
- Teach children to _____ and honor (Eph 6:1; Ex 20:12)
- Be diligent to work on _____ responses

- Utilize vital training _____

- Use God-given _____ and _____ with confidence and meekness

- Freedom is given as a child demonstrates _____

- Schedule and _____ is essential

- Quiet, _____ time each day

- _____ time

- _____

Application

1. What is the overflow from your heart into your home? What needs to happen for you to “get your heart in order”?
2. Are you and your husband on the “same page”? What are some of the guidelines and expectations you have established for your children? Have you clearly made them known? What are ways you can train them in making right choices?
3. God has given this “house” to you and no one else. What is something you can intentionally implement to “get your house in order”? (Titus 2:3-5; Dt 6)
4. How are your personal responses in your obedience to God? What is your attitude? Are you more concerned with what others think of you and your parenting more than getting your heart and your child’s heart rightly responding to our gracious, loving Father?
5. What are some important character traits, verses, sayings, behaviors that are important to you and your family? What are ways you will teach your children these things?